STAN'S SOAPBOX

Hi, Heroes!

Last month I tipped you off to the fact that you'll be seeing a new Spider-Man animated series every Saturday on the fabulous Fox Network starting this fall, a series that'll give our wildly successful X-Men thrillers a run for their money!

Now, in answer to countless requests (from Sam Countess, our pizza man), I'd like to tell you a little more about our upcoming Spidey spectaculars, just to whet your appetite for the greatest in cartoon entertainment.

The way we begin each spectacular show is by searching through our vast files of Spider-Man masterpieces in order to find the greatest wall-crawling epics of all. However, not only are the stories themselves important, but each and every animated episode has to feature one or more of Spidey's deadliest and most diabolical super-foes. For example, featured in our brand-new series you'll see such mighty masters of menace as The Scorpion, Venom, Kraven The Hunter, The Kingpin, Doc Ock, The Hobgoblin — and those are just some of the sinister, stupefying scoundrels in store for you!

Having selected our stories, we then decide how best to convert them into animated screenplays, keeping all the great stuff from the comics, while adding the awesome action and spine-tingling special effects that have already made Marvel Films one of the most admired names in Hollywood.

Speaking of special effects, just wait till you see our computer enhanced scenes of spidey web-swinging, wall-crawling and battling the bad guys all over and around the dizzying New York skyline. Everything is so realistic, so breath-takingly three-dimensional that you'll forget it's a cartoon after the first few seconds!

In case you've been wondering, the reason we were able to attract the very best artists, screenwriters and animators to our studio is simple — almost everyone in the cartoon business is a Marvel fan! So, when the word leaked out that we were planning an animated Spider-Man TV series, the stampede began!

By now, due to these subtle hints I keep dropping, you may be starting to suspect that I'm mildly excited about the upcoming Spider-Man series. When you see it this fall, O True Believer, you're gonna know why!

Excelsior!

NEWSLINE

ITEM! It was the mutant wedding of the year! No, we're not talking about the union of Cyclops and Phoenix — this mega-event was even bigger! This past January 8, mutant executive editor Bob Harras finally walked down the aisle with his own Marvel Girl, the former Anne Stavola. It took five years of dating before the procrastinating Bob finally popped the question; as he tells it, "that also explains why my books are always late!" The young lovers honeymooned in Paris, and Bob notes that unlike Scott Summers and Jean Grey, "we didn't travel through time!" Anne works as the East Coast Publicist Manager for Universal Pictures, which means she won't be working on the upcoming X-Men live-action movie from Fox! For the record, Bob noted that the new Mrs. Harras "is not an X-Man fan, and does not have any mutant powers!"

ITEM! Frank Castle sure gets around! This month, he's all over the place — from the mean streets of Manhattan to the old west to Gotham City to Riverdale! No, your eyes are not deceiving you, Marveloid — we did say Gotham City and Riverdale! First we have a one-shot called PUNISHER A MAN CALLED FRANK, a rollicking wild west adventure in which we see what Frank's life might have been like if he had become the Punisher in 1910! Editor Don Daley said, "If you loved Unforgiven, the Sergio Leone spaghetti westerns, and Death Wish, you'll love Chuck Dixon and John Buscema's A MAN CALLED FRANK!"

Next up we have PUNISHER MEETS ARCHIE: WHEN WORLDS COLLIDE — perhaps the most offbeat team-up of all! Editor Don Daley feels this team-up is a natural, since "Archie lives in the 'perfect' world that the Punisher lost." And that world is Riverdale! Don noted that Frank n' Archie have a lot in common — "Both star in monthly four-color comics that are stapled!" Story and art for this one is by the team of Batton Lash, John Buscema, Stan Goldberg, and Tom Palmer.

Last, and certainly not least, we have the long-awaited first meeting of comicdom's two greatest vigilantes in BATMAN/PUNISHER: LAKE OF FIRE! This one is put together by our friends at DC Comics, and the line-up of talent includes writer Dennis O'Neil and artists Barry Kitson and James Pascoe. When the Punisher's arch-foe, Jigsaw, heads to Gotham City with hopes of becoming its newest crime boss, Frank Castle pursues him — and winds up going head to head against none other than the Azrael Batman! One of Batman's deadliest (and craziest) enemies appears in this one, as well! Observed Don Daley: "When people speak of Batman and the Punisher, they usually stress the similarities. In the deeply talented hands of Denny O'Neil, I'm aware for the first time of the subtle differences between these two vigilante icons!"

HYPE BOX

The Marvel Music line kicks off this month with the release of ALICE COOPER: THE LAST TEMPTATION OF ALICE, the first in a three-issue limited series! The limited series is tied in to the release of Alice's new album of the same name, and both feature the input of writer Neil Gaiman and Alice himself! The art for LAST TEMPTATION is provided by Michael Zulli, with a painted cover by Dave McKean! Editor Mort Todd described Alice's comeback comic as "an arcane gothic coming of age tale — with lots of zombies!"
